

Electronic Control Unit (E.C.U.)

The control unit is an electronic computer. It receives incoming signals regarding air volume, engine revolutions, temperature and throttle position. From this information the computer calculates the correct injection time for the injectors.

